There were no answers! and this was taken as explence that Mr. Wileox had done nothing.

"Remember, my friends, that I am of you. I was elected a Prince among you not us a candidate but us private citizen a brother in an of fort to give you what I believe to be he hest advice."

The rrowd was bent in good humor acing the meeting and the speakers ser generously applicated. After the neeting the Prince received the conratulations of the people. On Sonday he party left for a tour through Hamicua and Kohala.

The Hawailans are unsettled since the departure of the Prince. Up to the line of his arrival they were detected. d to make him their candidate for belegate, but sink by his declined to mit his name to be used there is a mor that their next choice is Kepot al of Mant, and it is set that in the cient of Robertson withdrawing Kepolhat will have the support of a strong wing of the Republican party. Up to e last advices from Honoluiu, Alex. Robertson was a strong favorite.
